CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
1992	Eighth American Philatelic Congress [Paperback] Jere Hess Barr	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. Limited edition #425 of 500 copies. The two cent 1898 issue of Canada by Denton; Development of the study and collecting of postmarks by Thompson; What are War Covers by Norona; The counterfeits of the first six issues of Crete by Thompson; The stamps and postmarks of the Ionian Islands, nineteenth century by Barr; The overprint issues of the Irish Free State by Zervas; Confederate states packets on the lower Mississippi by Somdal; United States Waterway Packetmarks by Klein. Pages and cover are sound. Cover shows some age discoloration on spine due to paper quality and shelf storage.	$45.00
1993	Fifth American Philatelic Congress [Paperback] Jere Hess Bar	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. An illustrated history of Brazil as told in postage stamps by Cubbage; Distinguishing extra cancellation impressions of the Barry machines by Greenewald; Jenkins' Camden dispatch 1853 by Klein; Railroad cancellations on the Civil War revenue stamps by Shellabear; The examination of a multiple transfer by Barr; Some early engravers by Heizmann; The "Special" paper printing of 1928 by Southgate. Sound and clean.	$40.00
2883	Fiftieth American Philatelic Congress (American Philatelic Congress Series, September 21-23 1984) [Hardcover] September	Contents include articles: A postal history of the Army of Northern Virginia; The U.S. military government overprinted postage stamps of Korea-1946; Salomon of Haiti and his philatelic legacy; The one cent 1861 stamp--a shade analysis; Mails from U.S. to France via England 1836-1849, etc.... Pages and binding are firm and tight. Owners label on front piece. Pages and cover are clean and fresh.	$25.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
8832	Fifty-Eighth American Philatelic Congress, October 10, 1992 [Hardcover] Michael Forand	Book contains the following articles: The Postal Markings of Columbus 1814-1845; The 2 cent Columbian "Broken Hat"; The Dumonteuil forgeries of Colombia; Caribbean purser mail of the Hamburg American Packet Line; The Cap-Haitien provisional marking of 1889; Tonga's Queen Salote definitive; Medical personalities commemorated on USS Relief covers; Russia's semi-postal issues of 1914-1915; A doubly extraordinary Polar expedition. Book appears never used. Pages and binding are firm and tight.	$16.95
8830	Fifty-Fifth American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] Barbara Mueller	Book appears never used with pages and binding firm and tight. Contents include: Modern Philately and the Frama Challenge; Warren H. Colson of Boston-His Stamps; The Venezuelan-St. Thomas Packet Services 1820-1880; Charlemagne Tower-American Entrepreneur; Some notes on perforation varieties of the Prince Michael Issue of Serbia; The development of Precancel Literature and its publishers; The postal history of St. Helena during the Napoleonic exile; Epilogue to Haiti's "Hard Money" issue of 1906; Nantucket postmarks and postal history to 1890; U.S. Postage stamp production dies 1847-1894.	$15.95
2880	Fifty-First American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] Abbot Lutz	Contents include articles on: U.S. Rating Marks; Haiti-The Liberty Heads; The stamp booklets of Greek posts; The Mulready goes marching on; Israel's unofficial postal links abroad in 1948; Restoration of rural mail delivery and money order service in Grossrachen. Pages and binding are firm and tight. Owners label on front piece.	$25.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
3054	Fifty-Sixth American Philatelic Congress: November 9-11, 1990 [Paperback] Barbra R. Mueller	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. The Bermuda Postmaster Stamps by Forand; U.S. Private Die Revenue Stamps by Riley; Color sampling the contract of 1890-preparations for a new series of U.S. definitives by Knapp; Plating the 1896 line engraved issues of Haiti by Jeannopoulos; Edwin C. Madden's influence on U.S. Philately by Bruns; The four issues of the Kingdom of Sardinia by Lana; The beginnings of the Chinese Bureau of engraving and printing as assisted by U.S. personnel by Brett; The romance of our mails by Koenig. Clean pages and cover.	$14.00
1986	Forty-Fifth American Philatelic Congress: August 31, September 1-3, 1979 [Hardcover] The American Philatelic Congress	Contents of this volume are: The three cent issue of 1851-57-condensed plating information; Philippine internal revenue stamps used as emergency currency; U.S. "Ship" mail; Fictious corner cards on specimen envelopes; Roseleur's Balloon Mail in the Siege of Paris; Austrian Christmas philately, etc.... Pages and binding are firm and tight. Pages clean. May have owners label or handstamp on front piece.	$10.95
8845	Pacific 97 Handbook The Congress Book 1997 [Hardcover] Nissen & Healey Editors	World Philatelic Exhibition Congress Book produced for the Pacific 97 Expo. Book contains articles on the U.S. 1847's; the King George V embossed envelope dies of New Zealand; The five territories of Arizona; Certified Mail-the first forty years; Portuguese Timor mail and the Netherlands Indies; Postal Notes: The first issues 1883-1884; Early postal meters of Mainland China; Seven Pan American Clippers on the eve of Pearl Harbor. The book appears never used and pages are fresh and clean. Binding and pages firm and tight.	$25.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
8846	The Congress Book 2000 Sixty-Sixth American Congress [Hardcover] Richard Helbock editor	Book produced for the APS stamp show in Providence, RI and consists of articles: United States Military Postal Rates during WW II; 50 years of turmoil in the Balkans 1875-1925; United States Autogiro Mail; Milwaukee Airmail 1911-1933; The introduction of military mail of South Viet Nam; Private mailing cards-the domestic rate increase of 1925-1928; WW II mail from Switzerland to Canada; The true fancioes of Maines's fancy cancellations; The book appears never used with binding and pages clean and tight.	$25.00
2878a	The Congress Book Fifty Fourth. American Philatelic Congress. 1988 [Hardcover] American Philatelic Congress	Volume contains articles on: 1897 UPU congress; 1871 German Censor marking at Versailles; Koenigsberg censor office; Haiti's definitive issue of 1933; Use of Nepalese stamps in telecommunications, etc..... Pages and binding are firm and tight. Pages clean. May have owners label on front piece.	$10.95
2882	The Congress Book Fifty Third American Philatelic Congress. 1987 [Hardcover] American Philatelic Congress	Contains articles on: Pharmaceutical feldpost; US 2 cent issue of 1887; 1st issue of Soviet Russia; Restoration of Rural Mail Delivery & Money Order Service in Grossraschen; stamp booklets of the Greek posts; postal markings on pre-stamp covers of Mexico; Turkish Liannos Locals. Pages and binding are firm and tight. May have owners label on front piece.	$25.00
2000	The Congress Book. Thirty Ninth American Philatelic Congress. 1973 [Hardcover] James P. Harris	Contents of this volume are: Metz Papillions; The United States 3c Issue of 1851-1861; The one cent stamp of 1851-57; Basic plate positioning the bank note issues (1870-1890); New Orleans exposition covers; The formula postcards of French Colonies; The Berlin Reichspost Museum, etc..... Pages and binding are firm and tight. Owners label on front piece.	$8.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
6501	Thirty-Eighth American Philatelic Congress: October 27-29, 1972 [Hardcover] The American Philatelic Congress	Limited edition of 1000. Various articles included: The early U.S. Bank Note Companies and their postage stamp issues, 1847-1893; The post office's philatelic truck; Improvements in postage and revenue stamps; Cuba to New York 1852-1877; Colored cancellations on the U.S. 3 cent 1861-67 issue; The county and postmaster postmarks of Florida; Foreign post offices in China; Russian (Zemstvo) Medicine stamps; etc..... Limited edition of 1000. Pages and binding are firm and tight. Some scratches on cover. Appears never used!	$12.00
1959	Thirty-Seventh American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] David C. Stump	Articles contained in this volume: Foreign mail to Rhode Island, two centuries ago; Postal history of York County in the National Archives; The motor vehicle use revenue stamps; The first postal card; A philatelic look at Laos, 1951-1971; The first colonial printed shilling stamp of New Zealand; Pre-U.N. postal history; etc..... Limited edition of 1000 copies. Pages and binding are firm and tight. Owners label on front piece.	$25.00
1991	Twelfth American Philatelic Congress [Perfect Paperback] W.R. McCoy	Limited edition of 500 copies. The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. Beginnings of scheduled Trans-Pacific Mail by Lobdell; British postal reforms of 1840 and the American postal system by Robinson; Canal Zone--First issue by Weiler; Collecting covers from odd named post offices in the United States by Hinz; Japanese prisoners of war mail by Talbot; Notes on the London cancellations of the nineteenth century by Burrell; Notes of the manufacture of United States coils by Kempf; Philatelic reminiscences of the Germa-Italian-Bulgarian occupation of Greece 1941-1944 by Drossos; Route agents' use of the 1847 issue by Fishel; Some notes on the errors of Denmark by Stevenson; Some notes on paper making by Hunter; south, Letter Unpaid" marking of Louisville, KY by Shenfield; Typical manuscript markings of the Colonial period of America by Blake. Pages and cover clean and sound. Some edge discoloration of cover due to shelf storage.	$40.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
6500	Twentieth American Philatelic Congress [Paperback] John D. Pope III	Contents include articles: Postal Facilities and Postmarks District of Louisiana,.....1804-1821; Special postage stamps for the U.S. office at Shanghai; Indian Territory, Oklahoma and the Neutral Strip; Israel; New York Postmaster's Miniature Plate of Nine; Canal Zone first issue on cover; A Missouri correspondence 1840 to 1883; Colonial printings of Japanese stamps and postal stationery, etc..... Pages are firm. Cover attached. Some age discoloration on front piece and edge of cover.	$35.00
1999	Twenty-eighth American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] Barbra R. Mueller	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. Civil War--postal history of Ship Island, Mississippi by Graham; Japan-German POW mail 1914-20 by Winters; octal markings of the Pan-American Exposition of 1901 by Smith; Basic philatelic reference literature by Curley; French Colonies 1892-1910 by Stone; U.S. - First bureau series plate numbers and their characteristics by Lorenzen; U.S. The unusual demise of the 1847 issue by York; Panama-the acknowledgment of receipt stamps by Schay; U.S. - registry system forms 1869-1871 by Norona; U.S.- The first bureau special delivery series by Markovits. Pages "Like New" Owners hand stamp on front piece. Bit of 'foxing' on first page.	$30.00

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
1990	Twenty-first American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] Franklin R. Bruns, Jr.	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. Counterfeiting and the stamp collector by Baughman; U.S. Registry Fees 1855-1955 by Mueller; Autographed ostage stamps by MacGregor; United States 1851 issue by Meyersburg; History of the postmarks used in the island of Crete during the 1881-1884 revolt by Economides; U.S. postal agency Barranquilla, Columbia by Brett; Cost Rica-check list of surcharge proofs and essays by Mitchel; Mexico-notes on counterfeits by Beal; The frame varieties of the bicolored ups of the Danish West Indies by Stericker; Development of aerial communication in China by Denison; The pre-stamp postmarks of Norway by Yort; The Bolivian Graf Zeppelinstamps by Kunze. Pages clean. Cover shows a bit of age discoloration. Owners handstamp on front piece.	$35.00
1994	Twenty-fourth American Philatelic Congress: October 31, November 1 and 2, 1958, the New Yorker Hotel, New York City [Hardcover] George L. Fite	Lowell, Massachusetts express and letter offices with notes on the Penny Post by Blake; Haiti's "Hard Money" issue of 1906 by Sellers; Canal Zone-the type III Mount Hope Local Overprints by Philler; The postage rates of the French Colonies 1787-1946 by Stone; The nick in the bottom frame line of the two cent brown of 1883 by Hall; Malta postal markings 1893-1909 by Grabfield; The manufacture of United States postage stamps by Brett; Confederate Navy Covers by Dukeshire; Ryukyu Islands postal stationery 1946-1958 by Faries. Pages 'Like New". Owners handstamp on front piece. Some glue staining due to age in front cover.	$18.95

CONGRESS BOOKS

SKU	ITEM-TITLE	ITEM-DESCRIPTION	PRICE
1995	Twenty-sixth American Philatelic Congress [Hardcover] Lidman, David (editor & President)	The APC books are the greatest anthology of philatelic articles published. A study of the little-known Western Expresses by Hertz; The registry rates and markings of Hawaii by Meyer; The Canadian expeditionary force in Siberia 1918-19 by Richardson; The early postal history of the Niagara frontier by Petri; Postmarks reflecting the French revolution by Chase; Prisoner of War franks of Canada by Sharpe; Berlin postal history 1945-1960 by McKenzie; The Confederate Postmasters' Provisionals by Sheppard; Illustrations of printing methods by Harvey; The Pacific steam navigation company-its private postmarks and post offices in Ecuador by Levi-Castillo; The stamps of Manchoukuo by Zirkle. Pages clean. Minor age discoloration on last page. Owners label on front piece.	$20.00